STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BIT-TERS, which is a true tonic-a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

> 501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

CALIFORNIA.

Supreme Court rendered a decision in the case of Joseph Hurtado, who was convicted of having murdered Jose Antonio Stuardo in Sacramento in February, 1882, for which he was sentenced to be hanged on Wednesday, July 26, 1882. Two defenses were relied on at the trial. First, that defendant was laboring under insanity when the fatal shot was fired; second that the killing was mansalsupher only. The write of defendant testified in his behalf that she confessed to him prior to the killing that she had been guilty of adultery with deceased, and the confession was followed by great anger, weeping and mental depression on the part of defendant. The defendant having introduced evidence that a certain house in Sacramento was immoral, offered to prove the independent fact that deceased had been seen entering the house in company with defendant's wife. The testimony would have tended to prove adultery, but the Court below sustained the objection to the testimony. No direct evidence was introduced by the people to contradict the wife's statement, and the higher Court could not assume that the jury arbitrarily, because she was the wife of defendant, rejected her testimony, or that they rejected it all, if they accepted her statement as absolutely true. The harness will hold their annual picnic at East Park hangs directly over the horses when they are placed at the engine ready to be hitched up, and is attached to the engine ready for use. It is held in position by a weight, with the aid of pulleys. The hames are fastened in front and the lines snapped. There is some time saved in getting ready to leave the engine house, but its principal feature is that the horses stand in their stalls free from harness.
